

RECRUITMENT, SELECTION AND INDUCTION POLICY INTRODUCTION

This policy applies to anyone responsible for recruiting, selecting and inducting staff and volunteers in Pendynas Ltd and all who participate in shortlisting and interview panels. This policy is designed to facilitate good recruitment and selection practice and ensure Pendynas Ltd meets all legal requirements and best practice towards the safeguarding of young people in their care. The appointment of all employees will be made on merit and in accordance with the provisions of Employment Law and the statutory guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE Sept 2024).

Introduction

Pendynas Ltd is committed to promoting the welfare of young people and keeping them safe. We are also committed to equality, valuing diversity and working inclusively across all of our activities. We aim to have a workforce that represents a variety of backgrounds and cultures and can provide the relevant knowledge, abilities and skills.

The purpose of the policy

- to recruit and select the best people available to join our workforce
- to take all reasonable steps to prevent unsuitable people from joining our company
- to recruit, select and manage our staff in a way that complies with legislation designed
- to combat inequality and discrimination
- to do all we can to achieve and maintain a diverse workforce
- to ensure that our recruitment and selection processes are consistent and transparent
- to ensure candidates are judged to be competent before we make them an offer of a job
- to ensure that new members of staff are given a proper induction.

We recognise that

- our workforce is our most important resource
- unsuitable individuals sometimes seek out opportunities via employment or volunteering to have contact with children in order to harm them
- some groups face unfair discrimination in the workplace
- young people and families benefit from our efforts to recruit and select a skilled and committed workforce from a diverse range of backgrounds

• new staff and volunteers cannot perform their role effectively unless they are inducted properly and receive ongoing support and supervision.

We recruit and induct our workforce by

- advertising posts through appropriate media and in a way that ensures that we attract high quality applicants from diverse backgrounds
- providing an application pack with relevant information for anybody who expresses an interest in an advertised job
- ensuring that all applications are made using our standard application form
- involving more than one person to shortlist applicants for interview
- having at least two people conducting a face-to-face interview with anyone we may want to appoint
- incorporating the views and perspectives of students and staff into the recruitment and selection process whenever appropriate
- obtaining references, two pieces of identification and original copies of any necessary qualifications from candidates
- requiring that all staff have an up-to-date relevant DBS check where their post is eligible for this (including a check against the barred list if the post involves regulated activity),
- providing an appropriate induction for all new staff
- ensuring that all staff are made aware, during their induction period, of how to keep children and young people safe in our school
- appointing all staff and volunteers on a probationary period initially, with a review before they are confirmed in post
- using the list of processes below to follow a consistent procedure for recruitment, selection and induction.

Summary

Pendynas Ltd provide a range of professional services based around the provision of education and supervision to young people who are unable to access mainstream schooling on a full time basis. We provide wrap-around services including transportation to ensure these young people can continue to progress both socially and academically.

We are looking for an energetic and approachable person who is committed to engaging young people in educational activities, supporting them to learn new personal and social skills and guiding them through reflection of their learning. The right person for the role will be effective under pressure, have excellent decision making skills and be well practiced at time management. Effective communication skills and a passion for working with young people are essential for this role. The ability to motivate young people to excel is an expectation of the role. An interest in social cohesion and a passion for developing young people's knowledge and understanding of wider issues that affect them is desirable.

Experience

- o Considerable, relevant experience in working with young people in a variety of settings
- Practised at working on both a one to one basis, and in group settings, with young people supporting and guiding social, educational and personal needs
- Proven track record of achieving positive outcomes when working with young people and the ability to demonstrate this achievement
- o Experienced in applying good safeguarding practice in classroom and non-classroom settings.
- An ability to engage with young people, some of whom may have learning, emotional or behavioural difficulties.
- Proven experience of personal development and learning, including the capacity to ask questions and check own understanding
- Experience of working independently
- Experience of inter-agency work

Education, Qualifications & Training

Essential:

A relevant teaching qualification and/or significant experience working with children and young people

Hold a full driving licence or be able to organise own transport to meet the demands of the role

An understanding of education systems and age and stage appropriate expectations

Good interpersonal skills e.g. listening, team work, negotiation. Ability to help young people who are angry or distressed by using effective communication methods, empathy and appropriate strategies to resolve situations and reengage in learning.

Ability to plan and organise your own workload and activities to meet agreed deadlines and role requirements. Respond flexibly to changing priorities.

Safeguarding Level 2 Trained
Commitment to Pendynas Ltd values and objectives

Desirable

Previous successful experience of working in a school, college or other child focussed environment e.g. children's home / residential setting

Knowledge and understanding of LAC/CIC and the associated issues within education this may represent. Ability to deal sensitively with sometimes difficult/upsetting information.

An understanding of EHCPs
